

Project: "Cultural Diplomacy and Technology " Forum

Location : Toronto/Canada

Dates of Conference: 20-23 August, 2024 .

Deadline:15 June, 2024

Participants: Totally 200. 100 International, 100 Domestic. (20 Fully-funded for int. students)

Objectives: The primary objective of the "Cultural Diplomacy and Technology " Forum is to facilitate interdisciplinary dialogue and collaboration among young professionals, scholars, and practitioners in the fields of cultural diplomacy and technology. Through keynote speeches, panel discussions, workshops, and presentations, the forum aims to explore the multifaceted relationship between technology and cultural diplomacy and its implications for international relations, cultural exchange, and global cooperation

Target Audience: The "Cultural Diplomacy and Technology " Forum is designed for a diverse range of participants currently engaged in or interested in the fields of cultural diplomacy and technology.

Panel discussions:

1. Cultural Diplomacy and Cybersecurity: Exploring Ethical Challenges Raised by Technology and Solutions
2. Cultural Exchange in the Digital Age: The role of digital platforms and social media in modern diplomatic efforts
3. Digital Divide: Addressing Inequities in Access to Technology

Eligibility Criteria:

- The Summit is open to applicants from all corners of the world.
- Age between 16 – 40 years.
- Professionals, students, and researchers working in the fields of cultural diplomacy and technology.
- Communication skills at an intermediate level in English are required for the candidates.

Financial Benefits:

Fully Funded Delegates

- Round Airfare Tickets
- Meals
- Accommodation
- City Tour and Niagara Falls

Note: Panel discussions, Certificates, Gala night and all events are free for all selected participants. Application fee of $50.